

Emma Healy Appointed Director at Goodacre UK

17th July 2014

The board of Goodacre UK is delighted to announce the appointment of Emma Healy as Director of Training and Event Management.

In this role Emma will be responsible for all accredited training programmes and events organised on behalf of Goodacre's clients. This includes all conferences and award ceremonies such as the annual Securities Industry Conference and the City of London Wealth Management Awards.

Emma brings a wealth of experience to this new role. She has progressed her career within Goodacre and has been instrumental in the development of accredited CPD training courses and securing a portfolio of the best presenters in the financial services sector. Goodacre now trains over 2,500 staff each year and organises some 100 events annually on behalf of its clients.

Emma Healy said: "I am delighted to be joining the board at Goodacre and look forward to further expansion of our successful training and event services. Having been part of Goodacre for some six years, I can draw on my experience to ensure that Goodacre becomes the first point of reference for all staff development programmes within the sector. I have a passion for business education and event management and am pleased to be given this opportunity by a company that is innovative and practical in its approach."

Stephen Pinner, Goodacre's Managing Director said: "I am really pleased that we have someone of Emma's experience and record of success joining the board. She brings tremendous energy, a brilliant attitude and sound knowledge of the business. I am looking forward to congratulating her on future achievements."
